

System study of Plant Clinic Program

1- The academic system is the system of credit hours or their ECTS equivalent.

2- The academic year is divided into two semesters:

The spring semester (15 weeks)

The spring semester (15 weeks)

It is permissible to add an optional summer semester (8 weeks).

3- The language of study is Arabic or English depending on the nature of the subject.

4- The number of credit hours required to obtain the Professional Diploma in Plant Clinic and Plant Health Technologies is 30 credit hours (60 ECTS). Each semester consists of 12 credit hours (24 ECTS) obtained from three compulsory courses and three electives, with a total of 24 credit studies (48 ECTS) and a Research project of 4 credit hours (8 ECTS) a free study in survey and identification of plant problems. in addition to 2 credit hours (4 ECTS) that were developed by the practical training in the plant clinic field.
